

TEMECULA: New mission offering food boxes

By The Californian | Monday, March 23, 2009 6:54 PM PDT ∞

 (1) Comments

 Increase Font

 Decrease Font

 email this story

 print this story

TEMECULA — Food boxes for the needy will be distributed Wednesday evening at Temecula's Rancho Community Church, a 4,000-member church that is teaming up with the Orange County Rescue Mission to help local families.

The boxes will be available from 4 to 6 p.m. at the church, 31300 Rancho Community Way.

The joint venture is called Temecula Murrieta Rescue Mission and organizers expect to make Wednesday night the normal night for weekly food box distribution.

More than 110 volunteers are expected to help with the distribution on Wednesday, but organizers said that any last-minute donations of nonperishable food items would be greatly appreciated.

For information, call (951) 526-1200 or visit www.rescuemissionTM.org.