

Orange County, CA

+ Follow

News Feed

Neighbor Posts

Marketplace

Events

5 Popular Renovations That Will Add More Value To Your Home

Seasonal & Holidays

Love Is In The Air At The Orange County Rescue Mission

The rescue mission recently hosted a Valentine's Day-themed craft event for youths staying at the Village of Hope.

Andy Nguyen, Patch Staff

Posted Mon, Feb 14, 2022 at 4:25 pm PT

Reply

The Orange County Rescue Mission held a Valentine's Day crafts day for youths living at the Village of Hope transitional housing center. (Courtesy of the Orange County Rescue Mission)

TUSTIN, CA — Youths at the Village of Hope transitional housing center in Tustin got to spread some love recently with a special Valentine's Day-themed crafts event.

ADVERTISEMENT

The children got the chance to make their parents and other loved ones hand-crafted Valentine's Day cards.

The Village of Hope, part of the Orange County Rescue Mission, is a transitional housing center for formerly unhoused people and families with children, said Katie Haga, a spokesperson for the organization.

Find out what's happening in Orange County with free, real-time updates from Patch.

Your email address

Let's go!

"The Rescue Mission hosts craft events like these throughout the year for the young residents as part of its mission to create a safe and nurturing space for children while their parents or caregivers are completing the organization's two-year recovery program," Haga said.

 Thank  Reply  Share

More from Orange County

Community Corner | 1h

Celebrity Jaunts + Student Receives Scholarship: Saturday Smiles

Crime & Safety | 3h

56 People Arrested In Orange County On Human Trafficking Charges

Community Corner | 2h

 Attorney Stole Millions + Beautify OC + New All-Vegan Mexican